

Blue Tongue Solar

Renewable Energy Solutions

EPC PROJECT JV PARTNER

Blue Tongue Solar Pty. Ltd.

Blue Tongue Solar systems produce 3.2 Gigawatts of power per annum in Victoria, Australia alone. Their attention to detail through design and engineering helps to achieve the highest yields especially on larger complex systems. Their commercial system capabilities include large scale roof top and ground mount power plants. Blue Tongue Solar provides Renewable Generator Approvals and a complete EPC service. BTS Provides total run systems from concept to finish or modulated completion to specified timelines. Their emphasis is on quality workmanship on quality projects.

See: www.bluetonguesolar.com.au

TRUSTEE AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE

James Norman, Trustee/ CEO.

Five years experience working and consulting in the Business sector within Australia and the US and with a special knowledge base in the International Financial Industry with roles in management and Directorships. Currently is the Managing Director of GCLTD, International Business Consultants and the Managing Director of Blue Sky Solar Developments PLC, a startup listed Renewable Energy Company. James brings strong management skills and understanding of the Technology and Financial Industries.

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

Tasman Shipley, PDM.

Civil works Project Manager with over 35 years of site experience in project management, construction management and superintendent roles on various civil engineering projects, residential and all forms of infrastructure works including power and electronic security and surveillance. Currently based in the Australia, Tasman brings key skills & experience in management & risk, infrastructure planning & construction, design and installation.